

Maplewood Observation Challenge #003

The Gazette Office

Observation Questions

(Easy Level)

1. How many clocks can you find?
 2. Can you spot the camera?
 3. How many coffee mugs are visible?
 4. Find the ladder.
 5. Can you locate the typewriter?
 6. How many desk lamps can you see?
 7. Can you find the satchel on the floor?
 8. How many windows are visible?
 9. Can you find the filing cabinet?
 10. How many bulletin boards are covered with clues?
-

Detective Questions

(Medium Level)

1. Which desk do you think belongs to the editor?
 2. What clue wall looks most important?
 3. Why might there be string hanging from the ceiling?
 4. Which stack of papers appears to have been used most recently?
 5. Which area of the room would you investigate first?
 6. Does this office look organized or chaotic?
 7. What object seems most out of place?
-

Hidden Clue Hunt

(Hard Level)

Find:

- A camera
 - A satchel
 - A typewriter
 - A loose photograph
 - A handwritten note
 - A newspaper clipping
 - A coffee mug
 - A desk lamp
 - A ladder
 - A filing cabinet
-

Detective Notebook

Write down three things that seem unusual.

1. _____
 2. _____
 3. _____
-

The Real Detective Question

This is my favorite one.

Imagine you are Captain Harlene.

The editor of the Maplewood Gazette left the office suddenly and forgot to return.

Looking only at this room, what happened?

Write your theory below.
